

South America Cruise from Argentina to Chile

February 19 to March 6, 2020

On the Coral Princess

with Gene & Alice Klingerman Stickney

Wednesday, February 19

Depart New London & East Lyme by motorcoach to our departure airport for our flight to Buenos Aires.

Thursday, February 20 Buenos Aires, Argentina

Arrive in Buenos Aires and transfer to the Coral Princess for our overnight stay in Buenos Aires. The "Paris of the South" flaunts its European heritage. One of the pleasures of Buenos Aires is simply absorbing its charm and flavor, from Parisian-style confiterias - cafés - to the city's popular tango clubs.

Friday, February 21 Buenos Aires, Argentina

With its air of haunted grandeur, Buenos Aires is a place of icy intellect and smoldering passion. It is a city where the elegant Colon Theater, one of the world's great opera houses, stands in counterpoint to the working class barrios that gave birth to the tango.

Saturday, February 22 Montevideo, Uruguay

Although small in size, Uruguay has proven to be big-hearted - the country is one of the most literate nations in the world while Montevideo is one of South America's most cosmopolitan capitals. You might tour one of Uruguay's outstanding wineries to sample elegant wines and learn about the excellent soils and ideal microclimates that attracted winemakers to the area over a century ago.

Sunday, February 23 At Sea

Monday, February 24 Puerto Madryn, Argentina

Puerto Madryn is your gateway to one of South America's largest breeding grounds for birds and mammals - Tombo National Reserve. Witness the awe-inspiring Magellanic penguin colony that migrates to this Atlantic peninsula every year to watch over their eggs.

Tuesday, February 25 At Sea

Wednesday, February 26 Falkland Islands (Stanley) (Tender required/wheelchair access limited)

The Falklands long served as a way station for ships, bound to and from Cape Horn. The islands' rigorous environment is immediately apparent as it is dotted with the hulks of vessels that succumbed to the fierce winds and waves of the South Atlantic. The Falkland Islands have some of the largest rockhopper penguin colonies in the world. So unaffected by the presence of humans, you can stand by and watch them hop down to the sea for food.

Thursday, February 27 Cape Horn (Scenic Cruising)

The culmination of the Andes mountain range, the legendary Cape is prone to unpredictably strong winds, choppy waters, icebergs and rogue waves - none of which phase the Princess ships that sail here. Nevertheless, hazardous maritime conditions have protected the rocky region from human settlement, so you'll enjoy the same views as the earliest explorers discovered centuries ago.

Friday, February 28 Ushuaia (Tierra del Fuego), Argentina

Sapphire lakes nestled in glacier-carved valleys are a featured attraction of tours through the Andes Mountains to the heights of Garibaldi Pass. Soaring mountains and an historic lighthouse create an ideal backdrop at the southernmost tip of South America for scenic wildlife cruises to seal haul-outs and cormorant rookeries.

Saturday, February 29 Punta Arenas, Chile (Tender required/wheelchair access limited)

Punta Arenas lies atop rolling hills, looking out over the Strait of Magellan. In the days before the Panama Canal, this was a major port as ships plied the waters of Cape Horn. Punta Arenas remains a prosperous town today, thanks to its rich natural resources. The city is also the gateway to Chilean Patagonia, a maze of fjords, rivers, steppes, and mountains to the north. To the south lies the great frozen mass of Antarctica.

Sunday, March 1 Amalia Glacier, Chile (Scenic Cruising)

While cruising through the sparkling waters of Chile's legendary inlets, you'll be graced by the presence of snowcapped mountain peaks, majestic forests and spectacular blue-tinged glaciers that will take your breath away.

Monday, March 2 At Sea

Tuesday, March 3 Puerto Montt, Chile (Tender required/wheelchair access limited)

Puerto Montt is your gateway to Chile's magnificent Lake District. Here, snow-capped volcanoes gaze down on alpine valleys nestled among low hills. Glaciers carved out this terrain, leaving the jewel-like lakes in their wake. The Lake District was a magnet for German immigrants, and their legacy can be seen today in the manicured rose gardens of Puerto Varas, in Chile's "German Villages".

Wednesday, March 4 At Sea

Thursday, March 5 Santiago (San Antonio), Chile

Santiago sprawls at the feet of the snow-capped Andes, offering us a beautiful farewell as we disembark to board our overnight flight back to the U.S., returning to Connecticut by motorcoach on Friday, March 6.
